SCHOOL OF LAW AND LEGAL AFFAIRS

The goal of School of Law and Legal Affairs (SLLA) is to enrich legal education by providing an environment in which law students can begin to learn the art of lawyering by serving real clients, and can develop the habit of reflecting on how to improve themselves, the profession, and the legal system. The faculty members of SLLA are highly qualified and experienced and have advance degrees in Law from renowned Universities.

To foster an educational environment we allow the student to strive for the highest level of practice. We provide each student with a caseload that involves a varied group of problems, legal issues, and lawyering skills. Our professional emphasis is on "client-centered representation," in which the student lawyer focuses on the client's goals, rather than defining what the client needs; and treats the client as an effective collaborator in problem-solving. Our educational goal is to graduate lawyers who know what excellent legal practice should be; and who have developed a habit of thinking about the complexities of the law and the larger implications of the work they do, making them life-long learners.

The SLLA has continued to change to meet the needs of students, clients, community, and the School. In particular, we are proactive about constantly assessing and revising our educational methods. The SLLA strives constantly to foster the best possible educational environment; still, in the end, it is the students who make their own education. Other regular features of SLLA are Moot Court, Legal Aid Clinic, Invited Talks, Conferences, Seminars, Workshops and Quiz competitions.
